I Love You To God And Back: A Bedtime Prayer Book

Synopsis

Show your precious little ones how much you love them . . . with every bedtime prayer. Everyone loves a sweet bedtime story—and this one has the added bonus of teaching children a lifestyle of healthy prayer. Starting with sweet and silly text about bedtime routines—teeth brushing, story time, and one more glass of water—this delightful book will then teach children how to pray: love God, ask Him for forgiveness, thank Him for many blessings, and offer requests. Throughout the bedtime rituals, Mommy and Baby giggle as they play a game to describe how much they love each other. This unique story will make bedtime prayers a real learning and bonding experience for parents and children. This complement to Amanda's beautiful book for grown-ups is a perfect bedtime book for parents and children.

Amanda Lamb is a professional television journalist with 23 years of experience. She covers the crime beat for an award-winning CBS affiliate in the southeast. I like that there is a foreword for parents. The pictures are extremely cute. I read this to my grandsons 4.5 and 1.5 years old. The younger one still doesn't focus much on books. But, he did point to some of the pictures. My older grandson seemed to pay more attention to the story line and talk about what was going on. I think he would focus better if I read it to him alone. I liked the message that it gives about love and doing chores and getting ready for bed. I love that it teaches how to pray in a very simple way.

I got this for my cousin who had a baby and wanted a prayer book. After she said she loved it, I got it again for another loved one who had a baby. This relative also loves the book. The illustrations are beautiful. I followed people's recommendations and got it in hardcover because the babies may tear at it.

I first found this book at a discount store at Christmas. I read it to my daughter before bed and now she wants to hear it every night. She is only 2 so she ended up ripping a few of the pages. I bought another one as a backup. I bought a third one for another backup and to make a picture for my daughters room. The last page of the book is a prayer for love in family and at home. I used that page to make the picture.

This is a super cute little book about a mother bunny and her baby, Bitty. It is about the bedtime routine of saying prayers to God and loving each other. The pictures are colorful, and it is really just adorable. The story itself is just "good", not amazing, but it is a fun way to remember God at bedtime with both stories and prayer.

Very cute story. We enjoy it and the pictures are nice as well.

This book is adorable!! Definitely a must have for the little ones library!! Our 18 month old hands it to us almost every night to read it to her.

It is an amazing book to show God's love to little ones!

My son tells me all the time, he loves me to the moon and back, now, since reading the book, we love each other to God and back. Beautiful book. Would be great book for gift at baptism, birth or Easter.
