WHO Classification Of Tumours Of The Central Nervous System (IARC WHO Classification Of Tumours)

Synopsis

WHO Classification of Tumours of the Central Nervous System is the revised fourth edition of the WHO series on histological and genetic typing of human tumors. This authoritative, concise reference book provides an international standard for oncologists and pathologists and will serve as an indispensable guide for use in the design of studies monitoring response to therapy and clinical outcome. Diagnostic criteria, pathological features, and associated genetic alterations are described in a disease-oriented manner. Sections on all recognized neoplasms and their variants include new ICD-O codes, epidemiology, clinical features, macroscopy, pathology, genetics, and prognosis and predictive factors. The book, prepared by 122 authors from 19 countries, contains more than 800 color images and tables, and more than 2800 references. This book is in the series commonly referred to as the "Blue Book" series.

Customer Reviews

Long-awaited, this revision of the 2007 WHO Classification for central nervous system tumors is the new essential guide to diagnosis, incorporating for the first time in tumor neuropathology extensive reliance on molecular genetic information as well as standard histopathology. All of us in the field must have this book, it codifies our common language for dealing with patients with these tumors, whether we are neuropathologists, other pathologists, neurosurgeons, neuro-oncologists, medical oncologists, radiation oncologists, or CNS tumor research scientists.

excellent

This is the authoritative review of the newest classification of CNS tumors.

I order this book from Brazil. And as always, it arrived on time. I'm really satisfied.

Absolute requirement for practicing neuropathologists.

Great one.

Perfect
