Frida Kahlo And Her Animalitos

Synopsis

Frida Kahlo and Her Animalitos, written by Monica Brown and illustrated by John Parra, is based on the life of one of the world's most influential painters, Frida Kahlo, and the animals that inspired her art and life. The fascinating Mexican artist Frida Kahlo is remembered for her self-portraits, her dramatic works featuring bold and vibrant colors. Her work brought attention to Mexican and indigenous culture and she is also renowned for her works celebrating the female form. Brown's story recounts Frida's beloved pets—two monkeys, a parrot, three dogs, two turkeys, an eagle, a black cat, and a fawn—and playfully considers how Frida embodied many wonderful characteristics of each animal.

Customer Reviews

Expressive acrylic paintings expertly evoke Kahlo's style and color palette. (Vicky Smith Kirkus Reviews) This unique and gorgeous take on the famous figure's work will give children an accessible entry point to an important artist. A good choice for picture book biography shelves. (Shelley M. Diaz School Library Journal) Not the first Frida Kahlo picture book biography and certainly not the last, but maybe one of the most successful... Plus you get John Parra's art as an extra bonus. That guy's amazing. (Elizabeth Bird A Fuse #8 Production, School Library Journal)
