The Westminster Confession Of Faith (with Prooftexts And Active Table Of Contents)

Synopsis

The Westminster Confession of Faith is a Reformed confession of faith, in the Calvinist theological tradition. Although drawn up by the 1646 Westminster Assembly, largely of the Church of England, it became and remains the 'subordinate standard' of doctrine in the Church of Scotland, and has been influential within Presbyterian churches worldwide. This edition includes proof texts and an active table of contents. The intention was for this to be free, but requires a minimum price of $0.99.

Customer Reviews

The Westminster Confession of Faith is one of the rocks that support Calvinist based denominations. For its time period the English is very easy to understand. I like to read a selection every day along with my other devotionals. All of it is tied to scripture thus affirming its validity.

I bought my copy used. It arrived promptly and the condition matched the description from the vendor. I've yet to read the book in entirety, but the portions I have are very rewarding. Of course I would hope so considering this is one of the great confessions of Christianity. I look forward to reading more and in no way regret this purchase.

This book is an excellent reference book. I feel i did well adding this to my library. If you are a Christian who wants to further understand what true Christianity is you should at least read this book if not add it to your library.

Want to learn what the Bible and the church are all about - this is a source for those who are tired of the wishy washy.

Have questions of just what is to be truthfully taught about Go? This writing will clearly answer them. Though in Old English, there are many updated versions available. I particularly like to read these types of works the way they were originally published. Blessings on your reading.
