Some of the attractions covered: Gellert Baths Hospital in the Rock Fisherman's Bastion Hungarian Parliament Vajdahunyad Castle Budapest has a large number of attractions so it can be hard to know which are really worth a visit. In this guide you will find our Top 20 to the must see sights on a trip to Budapest. Budapest is the city of relaxing spas, good food, ruin bars, and a rich historical heritage. This is a city with something wonderful around every corner. There are many cultural things to see and do in Budapest, and if you want a break away from the city, there are some lovely places to escape such as Gellert Hill, where you can enjoy an amazing view over the city. My favorite spa is Gellert Baths, as I love the Art Nouveau design and the history. I also enjoy visiting Palatinus Open-air Baths as there is something there for everyone from waterslides and a wave machine to a children's pool and (in a quieter area) thermal pools of various temperatures. If you are feeling stressed at home, then book a trip to Budapest because after a couple of hours relaxing in a thermal pool, your troubles will seem to just disappear. The city also has many interesting museums such as the Hospital in the Rock and the House of Terror. One visit to Budapest will not be enough. This is a city that you will return to over and over again. Click on the Orange buy now button at the top right and grab your copy now!

What makes this Budapest book unique is that the author Lynne Knightley has visited the city, and its attractions personally, and many times! She uses all this firsthand knowledge to create a travel book which readers love. This all makes for a great experience when they visit Budapest!
