Janiece Rendon is a woman filled with tenacity, passion and heart. Laid off five times in 31 years from the same Fortune 500 company, she learned what she calls the F.A.C.T.S. of Life (Forgiveness, Attitude, Choice, Trust and Step into Your Greatness.) These simple F.A.C.T. S. kept her in the game and thriving through her many moments of uncertainty. Trust the Curves is about finding opportunity in the most difficult situations by keeping your attitude going in the right direction.

Â Inspired by the teachings of Zig Ziglar, she was determined to take advantage of the educational opportunities she never had growing up. Â Not only did she graduate from her high school at 34 years old, she went on to earn a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration: Human Resource Management, and later graduated with a dual Master of Arts degree in Communication and Psychology. Customer Reviews

This is a memoir written with so many curves in life that it could have your head spinning wondering how anyone could overcome such challenges as Janiece did throughout her life. Through it all, her life eventually led to her destiny as a public speaker and life coach. The key to it all was that her life changed for the better because of how her dream and passion for life changed her. You will be inspired and encouraged as you read about this overcoming woman of God who learned how to trust the curves that life can give.

This book is very good! Janiece is so positive in her outlook, no matter what the circumstances, or what bad things come her way. Her attitude is what makes the difference and her tenacity is incredible. If one door closes in her face she automatically starts looking for the next door and trusts God for the outcome.

Janiece Rendon is my kind of gal. She just does what it takes to get the job done. She is so practical and inspiring. What an amazing person to go from no high school diploma to getting not one, but two Master's degrees. She makes anything seem possible because she has done it!

An awe inspiring book and a must read! Life is full of twists and turns and curves. It's how we choose to react to the situations placed in front of us. This book will grab your heart from the beginning to the end. Loved it!

Janiece this was a wonderful book and I am happy that you have been able to over come so many obstacles. You are truly an inspiration and I hope we can all trust our curves through life as well as you.
