I bought this book on years ago and could not help being tremendously impressed by him and the book keeps coming back to me from time to time.. He had a keen mind, was self-taught with little formal education and was a pro at fifteen. He was down more than once, but never out and his heart was always in the right place. He is one of my (few) heroes and I'd give long odds that if you give this an unbiased, unhurried read he'll be one of yours, too. Wow! Unforgettable.

I truly love this book. He writes in a stream of consciousness theme that I find very intimate and revealing. He also offers very sage advice for anyone looking to philosophically examine their lives. He is truly a Renaissance man!

Funny reading, some fuzzy filosofi.

Artie Shaw, the handsome, musical genius could also write and write well. This book is from his heart and he tells an interesting story of his life. Couldn't put the book down and managed to finish it in one day.

Bought this for my Dad's 89th birthday. Arrived on time and he is enjoying it so much. Excellent informational book and entertaining, especially for the homebound. Thank you!

I had been searching for a copy of this book for years, so was pleased to see it advertised at a pretty good price. When it was received, it was in excellent condition and was signed by the author - once again - brilliant service, great value, a terrific book. Thanks and Merry Christmas.
