How To Reduce Fear Of A Deposition: Handbook For The Layperson (A Deposition Handbook With Preparation Advice For The Layperson)

Synopsis

Reduce Your Fear Of A Deposition Using This Handbook. Know your rights! Anyone who has ever gotten a Notice of Deposition knows the fear that came with the notice. Most people have never been deposed and the thought of sitting as a witness (called a deponent) is a frightening thing because they have never gone through one before. This handbook is a guide for those who are about to go through that legal process known as an oral deposition. It explains what a deposition is, what kind of questions you can expect, the costs, the tricks and tactics of the lawyers, and even advice on what to wear. The purpose of this handbook is to put the layperson at ease and show him or her how they can go into a deposition with a measure of confidence and not be filled with fear. You'll know your rights. You'll come away knowing the limitations of the lawyer, and you'll know what to watch out for in your own deposition. This handbook is written by Voyle A. Glover, a veteran lawyer of many depositions. It is an easy read, not filled with legalese, and has many examples in it to show you what to do, what not to do, and what to expect. If you're a litigant in a lawsuit, or a witness in a case, whether it is a criminal case or a civil case, and a lawyer wants to ask you questions, formally, in the presence of a court reporter, then you are going to be deposed, which means a deposition will be held at the lawyer's office. This book tells you what to do, what not to do, and is a handbook for every layperson who has to undergo this legal procedure. It is designed to quickly bring you up to speed for your deposition. One reader said this of the book: "I am so thankful for your book. Because of your book, I was able to go into my deposition without fear. Well, I was nervous at first, but as soon as I put into practice your tips, I relaxed. It went well." -Jerry Most attorneys understand the power of a deposition and know that often, this is where their case can be won. All it takes is for the deponent (the one being deposed) to get flustered and nervous and make critical mistakes in their testimony. Don't wait until you get that Notice of Deposition but order now and be ready for your deposition. Your attorney will love it that you're taking positive steps to educate yourself and help your case.
