Customer Reviews

I voluntarily reviewed an ARC of this book. Bad Boy sports star in need of a new image plus a PR agent who shuns relationships, makes you wonder who'll tame who? Hanson and Lacey both get more than they bargained for as Hanson is targeted by women who make Lacey feel like her efforts are wasted. Apart from this Lacey and Hanson share a chemistry that can possibly ruin their careers.

This was the first book I've read by these authors. This is a well-written story about a bad boy football player Hanson Bell who has been suspended for 6 games. Due to his suspension, his coach has assigned him a PR rep., Lacy, to help him clean up his image. Lacy has her work cut out for her, not only does she have to help Hanson repair his image, but she has to resist his charm along the way. How long can Lacy resist bad boy Hanson? Their chemistry is over the top hot! Neither of them believes in relationships, they only have one night stands. You'll have to read to find out how they realize that their feelings for each other are real and how with love and trust relationships can work!

Wow that was quite hot!! Hanson is a football player whose reputation as a player both on and off field precedes him. To make damage control, Lacey was hired to be his PR Manager but one look at her and Hanson wants her.. Initially she refuses him on the context of being unprofessional which makes him want her all the more. Eventually they both end up in bed. Lacey is not one to settle down but Hanson's behaviour makes her kind of jealous even. Then she becomes pregnant unexpectedly and decides it best to not inform Hanson so as to save both their careers. What happens when Hanson learns the truth, how they overcome their differences and limitations to find their HEA is the rest.. Hanson is your typical player with women falling for him everywhere he goes. Albeit all those things, he cares for his friend so much that he takes the blame readily and undergoes suspension.. Lacey is totally different from all those leads I have read about so far.. She is strong, determined and all professional. Kind of cold and remains aloof from any kind of relationship. But when let loose she is real wildfire.. I loved her spirit.. Totally a super hot read.. I particularly loved those places where Hanson persuades Lacey, trying to get her to open up. The baby was the icing on the cake.. So sweet..I'm voluntarily reviewing the book in exchange for an ARC..

OMG! A must read! I really enjoyed this book. Eva Luxe and Juliana Connors did a fantastic job. I can't wait for their next book. Hanson was suspended from the Miami Dolphins for driving under the influence. (He took the blame for his friend Brian because Brian was going through a rough time). Hanson had several other charges also so Coach Thompson suspended him from 6 games. Lacey was hired to straighten Hanson up so his fans would love him. Hanson always got any woman he wanted but when Lacey didn't jump like he was used to women doing, it made him want her. Lacey only had one night stands herself but she had sworn to herself she didn't mix business with pleasure. Hanson and Lacey had to spend a lot of time together if Lacey was to improve his image with the public. Lacey talked Hanson into donating some money and time to a children's hospital. When Hanson donated $100,000, Lacey was so excited she hugged and kissed him. Will Lacey give in and sleep with Hanson? Will Hanson straighten up and only want Lacey? I received an ARC and am voluntarily leaving my honest review.

Hansen and Lacey | Whew! These two take one look at each other and combust into lust. Trouble is, she's working for his football team-- it's her job to makeover his public image. He's off limits. He's determined to seduce her. She's determined to stay professional-- (LOL. I don't think so). Trouble is, every time she looks at him, there are all kinds of very private images that dance into her head | But seriously though, he needs to grow up. She needs to get a life. As a character, at least in the beginning, Lacey isn't the type of person I relate to, so I had a hard time finding something to like-- at first. Forgive me Lacey. Now I'm all in. And Hanson is just a spoiled little boy who needs to take a good hard look at what he really wants from life. His career depends on him taking it seriously. And he can't play football forever. They are both players in their personal lives | Plenty of sex, no relationships, no strings. Uh, oh. Something tells me that's about to change. (This is the part where all us romantics out here rub our hands together and smirk). | "Okay, you two," I say. | "I'm waiting for you to redeem yourselves." | And they did. Oh, yes they did. 5 stars.

Hansen is a football player with an image problem. He's a drinking playboy who only does one night stands. Lacey is a PR manager who doesn't do commitments. The chemistry between the two of them is hot. I actually liked both their characters and the fact they both changed on the way to their HEA. The book had a few mistakes in it but other than calling Liam by the name of Lindsay in the epilogue, there wasn't anything major. This book moved along rather quickly and was an easy, light read. I love Julianna Connors books and this was a nice collaboration with Eva Luxe. There are also several bonus books included which make this an even better deal.
