Excellent guide.

This book was delivered in a timely fashion. It was in excellent shape. The only thing missing was the pull out map. I secure a map from tourism office. I am using this Edition to plan our trip to Maine in July of this year.

We recently went to Maine and used this book as a reference. It was a great help. It recommended restaurants with helpful reviews, and gave us inside information of several historic sites of Maine.

My wife and I used this guidebook extensively for info on restaurants and attractions along the coast of Maine. The information was pretty detailed and useful to us.

FODOR'S MAINE COAST, 2ND EDITION is a great guide to everything you need to know about coastal Maine, whether it's shopping at the Maine Mall in South Portland, great outdoors-y stuff such as beaches, hiking, and seal watches, or important historical sites such as the home of Neal Dow, father of Prohibition. The only problem with this book is its failure to mention Bull Moose Music or any radio stations, but that's a minor quibble, as THE INSIDERS' GUIDE TO PORTLAND, MAINE and THE INSIDERS' GUIDE TO THE MAINE COAST cover those areas more than ably.
