The Local Sydney Tour Guide: See Sydney From The Best Cafes To The Best Habourside Attractions (The Local Tour Guides Book 1)

Synopsis

FULLY UPDATED CONTENT AS AT DECEMBER 2016 To many people Sydney is that city on the other side of the world which hosted the Sydney 2000 Olympics Games. Its also a city they first see when New Years Eve celebrations come round each year as our Sydney Harbour Bridge lights up with fireworks and fanfare of the harbour. If you are visiting Sydney from overseas or travel from within Australia you need to have some guidance about where to go and some ideas on what you can see in your spare time. What you'll find in the book

- 12 best cafes to visit and see something interesting about the city (incl a few cafes you can re-charge your phone or laptop at too)
- Sydney's icons and where they found for you
- Accommodation suggestions that are affordable and scenic in Sydney
- Dining and nightlife suggestions where to find the foodie spots
- Where to find social groups to mingle with the locals
- Business networking social groups so you can mix with business people
- Best beaches to visit and where to find them
- See the harbourside
- Best ferry trips you can take within the harbour city
- Great picnic spots around the city and how to get to them

 PLUS MANY Helpful website links are right throughout the book to get local updated info Save time and money. Also added -

- * Quick guide to many day tours in and out of Sydney
- * Blue Mountains Tours and best places to visit nearby to Sydney
- * More updated links to sites within Sydney that you can visit

When I first came to Sydney I found the place overwhelming as there was so much on offer. But over time I gradually began to find lots of Sydney's secrets and was surprised not all the locals even know them. As a result of this I began my own social walking tours group to show people where they can find the great harbour views, the great cafe spots and some nice things about the city they weren't expecting before. As a visitor to this city your time may be limited but that shouldn't stop you from seeing some very good places and to make memories of visiting Sydney on your own or with friends or family an exciting stay for you. Customer Reviews

I have family in Sydney but I have never been. I was curious about whether it would be a place that I would enjoy going to with the distance being so great. I found this book to be a great little tourist book for helping find your way around. It is full of information on where to go, what to do and how to get there. It even has information on where to stay and eat out. Every question you could hope to ask is answered in this book. If you want to read an honest tourist book by someone who knows Sydney like the back of their hand, then this is the book for you.

David Newton has done a fantastic job writing 'The Local Sydney Tour Guide' it's fantastic to have the recommendations from a local regarding where to eat and exactly what attractions are worth checking out. I've been to Manly once before but I look forward to checking it out in greater detail next time I'm in Sydney thanks to the new found information I've acquired from the Local Sydney Tour Guide. I hope Mr Newton writes a Melbourne tour guide next :)

This is hands down the best Sydney Tour Guide. David Newton did a great job telling places in Sydney that you should visit. This book has been well researched and really shows the best joys in Sydney. No need to hire a local, all you need is this guide. Everyone planning to visit Sydney need to read this before they go!

This is a very captivating and interesting book that clearly has been thoroughly researched and the author David I. Newton is passionate about his subject matter. I discovered places in Sydney that I never knew about and would highly recommend this book to anyone wishing to discover the joys of Sydney Life thanks David great read. Nikki Cooper and great Meet Up group David organized in Sydney!!

Lots of information for a tourist. Loved the book.

This is a pretty slim book. Don't expect to get a lot. Truly a fast glossing over of visiting Sydney

Amateurish effort; not worth the low price
