The Other Kitten

Synopsis

Mark picked up a black and white kitten with four white paws and a white nose. 'We'll have this one,' he said. 'No,' said Carol, picking up a grey tabby, 'we're having this one, and I'll call it Fluff because it's so soft.' But choosing a kitten soon turns into an argument, and the argument nearly turns into disaster! The stories of Patricia St John have been entertaining and challenging children and young people for generations. This new edition of The Other Kitten is as fresh as when it was first published in 1984.

Customer Reviews

Patricia St. John is a skilled storyteller and a well loved and respected author. Her books have captivated children for over fifty years. All her titles have been reprinted many times and there are currently eleven in print. Total sales of English editions of her books stand at over 600,000 copies. Patricia St John is probably the best-known children's author on the Christian market. Up to her sudden death in 1993, she was constantly active in her local Coventry community keeping 'open house' to the children in the council estate where she lived. A wonderful writer whose books are models of clear Christian teaching combined with excellent story-telling skills.

This is a sweet book about asking Jesus for help and also about getting along with siblings. It is a quick read. The Gospel message itself was a little watered down, but that wasn't the purpose of the book. I enjoyed reading this with my son. He is in second grade. We took turns reading it and it only took two days or so to get through. Sweet, sweet book. It has lots of British words which were fun to explain to my son.

Good book for younger children. Read to 5 - 8 year old with a 10 year old who dropped in sometimes. I would say older than 8 it is not interesting enough to read alone, but has a good story line to learn from for younger children. We collect PSJ books.

Great story with wonderful lessons throughout. My girls (aged 9 and 6) really enjoyed this and we have already started reading another book by her.

We love EVERYTHING Patricia St. John has written (OK, so we haven't quite read all her books yet, but we're close). She has an amazing ability to express the feelings and thoughts of children in a very realistic manner. Great life lessons too.

We enjoyed reading this to our children and looking forward to the outcome. We all made guesses as to what the ending would be and we loved the ending.

Like Patricia St John's books

My 10 year old daughter, who is not an avid reader, enjoyed this book so much. She couldn't put it down. Well written by beloved author, Patricia St. John.
