Customer Reviews

I teach private lessons and have been using this book for years. I had to buy a new book because I use it so much my old one is worn out! It has a nice variety of duets with varying levels of difficulty. It is both challenging and rewarding. There are a few duets my beginners can play, but most of the duets are for intermediate and advanced players. My students love this book. I would recommend it to any private lesson teacher.

I've used and appreciated this duet book for many years...more original material than many duet books of this level.

Recommended by my son's music teacher. They now enjoy playing duet selections. Appropriate for an intermediate level player.

Duets make studying an instrument more interesting and even fun. This is a good book for just that purpose. I recommend it.

Excellent duets. Mostly intermediate level. Some make good concert pieces. The Mozart set are fine for recitals, and very playable even at a lower level of technical skill.

Great book!
