"Instantly engage the child from the very beginning... it is clear to see that they go far beyond the realms of everyday books; enlightening, inspiring and exciting children." —Family Fun Guide on Hervé Tullet

Hervé Tullet (b. 1958) published his first book for children in 1994 and is now recognized as one of the world's most innovative children's authors. Known in France as 'the prince of preschool books', Tullet takes the concept of reading to a new level, inviting young minds to think imaginatively, independently and creatively. His titles include New York Times bestseller Press Here, as well as I am Blop!, The Big Book of Art, The Giant Game of Sculpture and the 'Let's Play Games' series of board books for young children, published by Phaidon. He lives in Paris.

Absolutely LOVE this book! Use it in almost all of our art camps on the very first day. Great team building and sense of community! So many different ways to use just one book. Simply fabulous!!

A fantastic book for ideas on art workshops for children.

I love this book. I have used Tullet's workshop techniques in my middle school art classes and with younger kids at church. The workshops are a great way for everyone to participate in creating art.

We did the Field of Flowers at my library and it was so much fun. It's a great way to get the kids moving and focusing on creative energy. Making mistakes is good! I'm going to do a workshop this month!
