"Willy Norup's unique contribution to the rapidly-emerging conscious aging field, I Ching for Wise Living and Aging has made an age-old practice for tapping our inner guidance, traditionally expressed in arcane language and imagery, accessible to people in the modern world, using language that is engaging and inspirational... This book taps the power of synchronicity to help mindful and sincere individuals grow along the path of conscious aging. Thanks to Willy, I now appreciate and understand the I Ching in a whole new way." Ron Pevny, author of Conscious Living, Conscious Aging

"The I Ching is an ancient Chinese book of divination that has long captivated Western thinkers, including pioneering psychologist Carl Jung. Norup has written this modern version specifically with older readers in mind, people who may have trouble finding direction and meaning as they enter the second halves of their lives... The sections are long and thoughtful and encourage a deliberative, inward-looking analysis of one's own situation. Consulting the I Ching has a meditative effect--Norup writes that he does it first thing in the morning--and there are certainly worse ways to spend a few minutes than thinking about how one might overcome one's problems. A well-written, modern version of an ancient Chinese work."
