Praying Through Cancer: Set Your Heart Free From Fear: A 90-Day Devotional For Women

Synopsis

“You don’t have to face cancer alone. Traumatized and terrified of cancer? Perhaps you have been diagnosed yourself, or you have a friend or family member who is battling the disease. You know you must face it—but you do not have to face it alone. Praying Through Cancer is a collection of stories by women who have faced cancer and, with triumphant spirits, found comfort and sometimes even joy in the midst of it. For these women, cancer was a comma, not a period, in the sentences of their lives. Why? Because they put their faith in the Lord and He strengthened them beyond comprehension. You will laugh and you will cry, but best of all, you will know . . . you are not alone.”

Susan Sorensen experienced thyroid cancer at age 19 and breast cancer at 41. A speaker and author of books and Bible studies, she has also written for Christian Parenting Today and Children's Ministry magazines. She served two years as the National Coordinator of the National Day of Prayer during her five years on staff with Campus Crusade for Christ. Susan lives with her husband and children in Michigan. Laura Geist was diagnosed with breast cancer at 40. With a master's degree in journalism, she is a freelance writer who has written for many publications including Automotive News, The Chicago Tribune, and Atlanta Journal Constitution. Laura, who lives in Michigan with her husband and children, speaks to women's groups about finding joy amidst the pain of cancer.

A dear friend is going through cancer and I thought this book might help since it's stories of other women of faith. She loved it and reads it all the time.

Fantastic! I have sent this to 2 of my dear friends now battling cancer. They both have told me how incredibly helpful this book has been through their journey. I certainly can't say if this book was the sole reason but both are in recovery now and doing great!!! I so believe in the power of prayer!

I received this book as a gift and it helped me cope with cancer when I was going through surgery and treatment. Then I gave it as a gift to someone else with terminal cancer and they really liked it as well.

This devotional book was a gift for a friend about to undergo chemotherapy following breast surgery. Sometime we are so caught up in the physical healing that we neglect the spiritual healing that goes along with it. I pray that she found this book beneficial and a daily comfort in her journey.

This came highly recommended from a friend who is dealing with cancer. I gave the book to another friend going through the same experience. She has reported that she finds it wonderful help. I remain grateful to my friend who recommended the book and to for having it in your inventory.

Very inspirational book which really helped give me the strength that I needed to get through my chemo and surgery following my diagnosis of lung cancer. I am gifting it to other friends that have a new diagnosis of cancer and they all tell me it has been very helpful to them also.

Gifted it to my v sick daughter-in-law due to heavy chemo treatment. Her thank you stated she loved the devotionals because they were short and easy to read. Because of the chem she finds it hard to concentrate had a little stamina, so the length of the stories worked out for her.

This book helped me through my time after a stranger sent it to me. Now I give it to anyone I can. It's short readings hit on the gamut of emotions and fears of the journey and provide hope, strength, and humor just when you need it.
