Reckless Intentions (The Inner Society Trilogy Book 2)

Synopsis

Still new and fragile in her faith, Maggie finds herself in an ultimate battle between the fears of her flesh and the power of her faith. As the second trial of key members of The Inner Society approaches, tensions rise and she begins having horrific nightmares. Then the revelation of one of Maggie's darkest secrets threatens to destroy her relationship with her fiancé, Peter, and Maggie fears her world is crumbling all over again. After discovering the existence of an incriminating video and a dead District Attorney, Maggie once again becomes a serious liability for some dangerous people. As a hurricane approaches off the coast, Maggie winds up battling for her life as she fights to evade the storm...as well as the assassin pursuing her. Joining forces with Tai, her new computer hacker friend, she will risk everything to break into The Inner Society's server and expose their criminal acts to the world. Will Maggie and Tai be able to destroy The Inner Society before they can silence her testimony? Will Peter be able to intervene between the love of his life and certain disaster? Find out in Reckless Intentions, Book 2 of The Inner Society Trilogy!

Customer Reviews

I could hardly put it down! Intriguing and captivating. The story develops well and although you could read just the first book the three all work together. You won't want to stop!

Can't wait for the next one! Captivating!
