Customer Reviews

I bought it to go with a quilt I made for my granddaughter. I thought it was the perfect for her age.

We got this for a gift for a friend's daughter named Esther along with a crown to add to it. It was a nice book with great pictures and easy to read. My only complaint is that it is very flimsy and cheap looking. If I could find it in hard cover it would have made the perfect gift. I am glad I ordered 3 different books so I had more to offer her as this seemed too simple on it's own.

There are so few bible stories about female role models so this book was perfect for my 6 year old. Great quality, not very long, but nice for her to read.

Nicely illustrated and a good length for a toddler, but this version skipped too many details of the Esther story.
