Sue Rodman is a resident of Atlanta and the mother of three boys, ages 13, 11 and 7. She is also the Editor and Publisher of Field Trips with Sue, an award winning blog about things to do with kids in Atlanta and the Southeast. The blog is a Nickelodeon Parent's Pick winner and a featured blog on Raveable.com, (named by Travel + Leisure magazine as a top travel site). The blog is also featured on ATL Insider (the website of the Atlanta Convention and Visitor's Bureau) and has featured posts on national travel sites, Travel Savvy Mom and Best Family Travel Advice. Bi-monthly, see Field Trips with Sue segments on CBS Better Mornings Atlanta. Sue has also appeared on the local Atlanta NBC affiliate, 11 Alive. When not scouting new adventures, Sue is an award winning marketing and public relations professional. She is an experienced agency executive with international, as well as boutique firms. She has managed successful campaigns for national brands, mid-sized companies, small start-ups, and trade associations including: Feld

Entertainment(creators of Disney on Ice, Ringling Bros. & Barnum and Bailey Circus, Monster Jam and Nuclear Cowboyz), Allconnect, Atlantic Station LLC, and the Georgia Press Association. In her spare time, she serves on the marketing committee at Imagine It! The Children's Museum of Atlanta and volunteers at her sons' elementary school, as well as serving as a vice president's communications for the Sutton Middle School PTA.

I read them all and it's pretty good. However, have not had a chance to use them in daily life.

Looking to create memories with your kids? Sue, (of Field Trips with Sue), book has the most amazing free & cheap things to do with your kids around Atlanta and Georgia. Save money while having fun with the kids like free admission to The Atlanta Zoo, to where you can find free Movies in the Park events to attend with your family.

Sue does a great job finding some of the best fun and cheap things to do in Atlanta. After reading this book I had found a bunch of things that our great city offered that I didn't know about before! Trust me its great!
