Grief Diaries: Loss Of A Parent

Synopsis

Part of the Grief Diaries series dedicated to offering comfort, company and hope in the aftermath of life's challenges and losses, Grief Diaries: Loss of a Parent is a collection of intimate and candid narrations from different writers about their journey through losing a mother or father. In chapter one, each writer bravely penned the moment when their familiar lives disappeared along with their parent's last breath. The writers were then presented with intimate questions pertaining to their loss, and their responses are compiled within the individual chapters. These narrations are unabridged, as every voice is unique. But no matter the differences, the stories contained in each Grief Diaries book is a treasured reminder that none of us walk the journey alone. Welcome to the Grief Diaries village, where grief transcends all differences and unites us in the aftermath. Welcome, bereaved friend, to company, comfort and hope.

"DEEPLY INTIMATE . . . Loss of a Parent is a deeply intimate, authentic collection of narratives that speak to the powerful, often ambiguous, and wide spectrum of emotions that arise from the loss of one's mother or father. I so appreciate the vulnerability and truth embedded in these stories, which honor and bear witness to the many forms of bereavement that arise in the aftermath of parental death." *DR. Highly recommended these series of books. They are written by real people that have dealt with these problems firsthand. This is for anyone who has lost a parent or may be helping someone going through this journey.

Grief is such a difficult topic yet the writers in this book are so unbelievably brave to tell their individual stories. Each chapter gives the reader insight into what they were thinking and feeling during such a difficult and painful time in their lives. The stories are inspirational, heartfelt and hopeful. Every person who has grieved the loss of a parent but feels alone needs to read these stories so they don't feel so isolated. This is a must read for anyone who has lost a parent. Thank you Grief Diaries for bringing this difficult topic as well the others in this important anthology into our homes and hearts.

This entire series in the Grief Diaries Anthology brings the topic of grief out of the darkness and into the light. The power of the collective writers together is phenomenal! This is a must read for any professional who works with someone who is suffering from the loss of a parent. I believe it will prove to be a great gift to those in the thralls of the grief journey, which will allow them to know they are not alone and there are people and an entire community here that understands. Grief is isolating and scary and these books are a supportive friend that is there when they are needed and also will link the reader to many people and resources in the grief community.
